This Day His Majesty's Packet-Boat the Eagle, commanded by Capt. William Nicholls, sailed with the Mails for Falmouth.

Extract of a Letter from Newport, in Rhode-Island,

"I mentioned to you in my last from New-York, that I was "then setting out to complete my intended Journey through the "New-England Colonies: It was not in my Power to write you "from New-Hampshire, where the approaching Winter determined me to set Bounds to my American Travels, and to "make the best of my Way back to Pennsylvania, from whence "I design to embark for England in March.

"The generous Hospitality of this Place, does not leave me "Time to communicate those Remarks which have occurred to "me, on my Progress through these fine Provinces; where "every Man seems to be possessed of all the Comforts of Life.

"However I cannot omit an Affair which has opened every "Mouth in New-Hampshire, and engrossed the Astonishment "and Conversation of all that Country, during my Stay there.

"You remember their clever little Governor, who arrived "at Charles-Town from England, about the Time I did—His "Uncle and Predecessor having been a Widower some Time, "and all his Children dead; quite worn out with the Gout, at "Sixty-five or six, married his House-Maid, a young buxom "Girl of 24, whose Services at a Tavern in Portsmouth are "reported to have drawn much Custom. All the Family were "chagrined, but put the best Face they could on the Matter, "as he was the Governor, and uncommonly haughty; she of "Course soon became a Lady, but, like Puss in the Fable, "transformed into such a State, it is thought she could not re-"sist.—Soon after the present Governor came to his Govern-"ment, arrived a Mr. Michael Wentworth, from Europe, and "lived with the Governor, whose Family and Friends vied in "caressing him; among the Rest, he introduced him to his "Uncle, and young Aunt, which his keen Friend improved so "much, that he soon left his first Quarters, and hung up his "Hammock with the old Gentleman, who had made his Will, "and given his immense Estate, after a very ample Provision "for his Wife, to his own Family; a considerable Part of "which had descended more than One Hundred Years: But "the old Man, at 74, quite enfeebled, had the Mortification to "see his Will destroyed, and was e'en glad to execute a new "one, and give all to his Wife, without the least Remem-"brance of his own Family.—Some short Time after, Death "kindly let in his adroit Guest to his Estate, as he married the "Widow, who had providentially imported nuptial Attire for "this her second Wedding, some Months before the first Hus-"band's Death:—Thus, Sir, is proved that Scripture, which "says, Man heapeth up Riches, and knows not who shall take "them.—The Conversation on this Event is endless; for all the "People love their Governor, who is just, affable, and hospi-"table, and a remarkable Friend to the Poor: All Ranks "hoped and expected, this Estate would have devolved upon "him—it would have been a Blessing to the Province, but now "'tis expected it will all be carried Abroad with the Possessor; "what a Pity, that so good a Man, as every Body allows the "Governor to be, should suffer so extravagantly, by his Kind-"ness to his Stranger Name-Sake.—But so it is, he is rich in "Blessing—the other is not poor in the Reverse.—I thought "you would be pleased to have this History, as you, and many "of our Friends were acquainted with the Governor, when he "was in your Colony—If the Carolina Ladies could manage "their Husbands to make such Wills, and die so opportunely, "they might amass some of the greatest Fortunes in the King's "Dominions, perhaps they would laugh if your Printer would "give them the Hint by this Instance, instead of a whole Sheet "of politics."—— G. THE SUBSCRIBER'S very valuable Tract of TIDE-SWAMP LAND, on the Iſland of Argyle, in Savannah River, formerly granted for five Hundred Acres, but ſuppoſed to contain near ſeven Hundred: Of which 250 Acres are cleared, and incloſed with large ſubſtantial Banks, and ſubdivided into ſmall Squares by other proper Dams, ſo as to render the Hoeing and Watering each Part diſtinct, an Advantage few large Plantations have; each Diviſion having fine Flood-Gates and Sluices, which let in the Tides from the Front and Back Rivers at the ſame Time. The ſuperior Quality of this Plantation, with the Goodneſs and Conveniency of its Buildings, added to the good Order that it is in, juſtly ranks it with the firſt Tracts in either this Province or Georgia.——Any Perſon deſirous of purchaſing, may view the Premiſes, which will ſufficiently evince the Truth of what is ſaid above. No Inducement ſhould have been ſufficient for the Owner's parting with it, but its Situation on an Iſland, not admitting his Stall-feeding his Cattle, which he can do on his Lands elſewhere.

WILLIAM WILLIAMSON.

N. B. The Times of Payment will be made agreeable to the Purchaſer, the Intereſt being paid annually, and Security given. Poſſeſſion may be had immediately on the Sale, ſo as to plant a full Crop the enſuing Spring.
